FSM Supreme Court, Palikir Pohnpei - On

August 4th, 2015 at 9:36 a.m. in Palikir Pohnpei,

The Honorable Beaulen Carl-Worswick

Associate Justice of the FSM Supreme Court

administered oath to two candidates for the FSM bar who recently passed the bar exam, Ms. Caroline A. Rugero of the FSM Department of Justice and Mr. Minh Nguyen of Pohnpei State Supreme Court.

Ms. Caroline A. Rugero, holds a degree in Law and a degree in Arts (international Relations) from the Australian National University (ANU) along with a Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice. She was admitted to practice as a lawyer in the Supreme Court of New South Wales, Australia, on July 8, 2011. She was then later granted a Practising Certificate in the Australian Capital Territory, Australia. This Practising Certificate allowed Ms. Caroline Rugero, as an admitted lawyer to practice in the Australian Capital Territory as a solicitor or barrister (attorney). Ms. Rugero pass the FSM bar on March 2015 and today she is working at the FSM department of justice as an Assistant Attorney. The motion for Ms. Rugero's admission was presented to the court by the Secretary of Department of Justice, Mr. Joses Gallen. The motion was diligently presented and was granted.

Mr. Minh Nguyen received his undergraduate degree in Business Accounting at California State University, Fresno, and his law degree at Thomas Jefferson School of Law in San Diego. He is a member of good standing in California bar, USA. Mr. Minh Nguyen passed the FSM bar in March 2015 and is now working at Pohnpei State Supreme Court as a Judicial Clerk. Mr. Minh Nguyen's motion for admission to the FSM Bar was presented Tuna Commission Staff Attorney, David Angyel, a member of the FSM Bar.

In attendance at the ceremony were friends and colleagues of Ms. Rugero and Mr. Nguyen to witness them receive their oath. The Honorable Beaulen Carl-Worswick concluded the proceeding by congratulating the two newly admitted bar member for their great accomplishment.
